

EXEMPLARY LEARNING AT LAMBETH ACADEMY

All teaching standards are consistently met to the highest level plus...

RELATIONSHIPS:

- are caring
- are built on trust, respect and the highest of expectations
- encourage risk taking, with no fear of failure
- derive from a positive connection between the teacher and their students

CLIMATE:

- is purposeful
- is calm
- is positive
- has a sense of mutual accountability and support
- is invigorating

TEACHERS:

- role model our values and our expectations at every opportunity
- are uncompromising and unconditional in their high expectations of students
- have a 'can-do' approach
- are confident in what can be achieved

STUDENTS:

- are active in their learning
- demonstrate a love of learning
- are empowered in their learning
- demonstrate progress over time
- Respect the right of everyone to learn

HOW IS EXEMPLARY LEARNING DEMONSTRATED?

These are just some examples of what we might see in our exemplary lessons...

RELATIONSHIPS:

- Language is positive and encouraging at all times
- The tone is calm
- All students are enabled to achieve
- Students ask, and answer, questions readily
- There are clear expectations

CLIMATE:

- Students are engaged
- There is an appropriate working noise
- The classroom is well maintained with quality displays
- Students help each other
- Routines are well established
- Atmosphere is calm and purposeful

TEACHERS:

- Set individualised 'stretch' targets
- Work is differentiated effectively
- Use data carefully to support each student
- Give quality, individualised feedback
- Provide students the opportunity to respond to feedback
- Work with pace
- Are consistent
- Talk only when needed
- Smile
- Are passionate about their subject

STUDENTS:

- Smile
- Listen to others
- Talk confidently about their work to each other and visitors
- Ask questions and are keen to develop their understanding
- Books are presented well and reflect what is seen in the classroom and the progress being made
